

Maliha Parveen

PROFILE

Being a mix of both extrovert and introvert can have its own up and down time yet I am usually at ease with people. I keep communication open and easy so that the workflow doesn't get interrupted. I love participating in classes and workshops that encourage learning and spreading knowledge. Working, discussing, and organizing projects with clients who needed videoconferencing by participating in virtual meetings. The following are a few of the software I use for my projects: - WordPress, macOS, Google, Microsoft, and Adobe.

I have a bachelor's degree in commerce though my work field is in content writing and management. I am confident about my communication, writing, and editing skills. I have always been a team player and highly organized in my workflow. In my experience in the last decade, I have worked with cross-functional teams from across the world. I am knowledgeable about various social media platforms and the strategies involved to create unique content for them. I am adaptive and enthusiastic with strong interpersonal expertise. I love taking photographs and love listening to music from around the world. I'd also love it if I get to travel a good deal. I am multilingual with an interest in languages and know English, Malayalam, Hindi, Urdu, & Bengali.
